Full many a glorious morning have I seen
Flatter the mountain tops with sovereign eye, kisses flan

Kissing with golden face the meadows green,
Gilding pale streams with heavenly alchemy;

Anon permit the basest clouds to ride
With ugly rack on his celestial face "ugly"

And from the forlorn world his visage hide,
Stealing unseen to West with this disgrace.

Even so my sun one early morn did shine
With all triumphant splendour on my brow;

* But, out alack! he was but one hour mine, watching, Flaw

The region cloud hath mask'd him from me now. mrs. Why 1536
Yet him forth this my love no whit disdaineth;
Suns of the world may stain when heaven's sun staineth.

Mary - Why didst thou promise such a beauteous day
And make me travel forth without my cloak
To let base clouds o'ertake me in my way,

Hiding thy brav'ry in their rotten smoke? alon
Tis not enough that through the cloud thou break - sun
To dry the rain on my storm-beaten face,

For no man weill of such a salve can speak he salves concorde
That heals the wound, and cures not the disgrace:

Nor can thy shame give physic to my grief; losse in &
Though thou repent, yet I have still the loss. maybe early
Th' offender's sorrow lends but weak relief

To him that bear the strong offence's cross. Paul's Cross:

Ah, but those tears are pearl which thy love sheeds,
And they are rich and ransom all ill deeds.
